

~~SECRET~~

DCID No. 2/1
(New Series)

DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE NO. 2/1<sup>1</sup>
COORDINATION OF OVERT COLLECTION ABROAD<sup>2</sup>
(Effective 8 March 1960)

Pursuant to those provisions of NSCID No. 2 regarding coordination of overt collection activities abroad, the following shall apply:

1. Departmental Responsibilities

Each department or agency having a responsibility under NSCID No. 2 for collecting certain categories of intelligence shall:

- a. Employ its own personnel and resources whenever possible in the collection of such intelligence.
- b. Take due account of the needs of other departments and agencies in formulating its collection program.
- c. Issue the instructions to the field necessary to implement this directive.
- d. Insure that the information desired is not already available in the intelligence community before sending a collection request to the field.
- e. Cooperate in the preparation of collection guides and manuals of common concern to field collectors.

2. Senior U.S. Representative's Responsibilities

In coordinating collection activities under NSCID No. 2, the Senior U.S. Representative shall:

- a. Take measures to minimize undesirable duplication of intelligence collecting and reporting, while at the same time encouraging to the fullest extent possible the application of joint effort to these activities.
- b. Make the most effective use of the intelligence capabilities and resources of departmental and agency representatives in keeping with their assigned duties.
- c. To the extent possible, delegate to members of his staff the responsibility for collecting and reporting on categories of information of interest to intelligence agencies not represented at his post.
- d. Recognize the additional intelligence potential of representatives of U.S. Government departments and agencies not members of USIB. Any exploitation of this potential shall be limited to that which is consistent with the discharge of their assigned mission and possible without jeopardizing their status vis-a-vis the host country.

<sup>1</sup> This Directive supersedes DCID No. 2/1 dated 25 October 1948.

<sup>2</sup> For Domestic Exploitation of Non-Governmental Organizations and Individuals see DCID No. 2/3 (New Series). For Procurement of Foreign Publications see DCID No. 2/5 (New Series). For Monitoring of Foreign Radio and Television Propaganda and Press Broadcasts see NSCID No. 2, paragraph 8 (New Series).

~~SECRET~~

~~SECRET~~

3. Collector's Responsibilities

In discharging the primary responsibilities of departments and agencies charged in NSCID No. 2 with the collection abroad of intelligence information, their field representatives shall:

a. Comply with coordination measures prescribed by the Senior U.S. Representative.

b. Keep the Senior U.S. Representative informed of the scope and nature of their intelligence collection activities.

c. Immediately pass intelligence information collected by them to the field representative of the department or agency primarily charged with collecting such information under NSCID No. 2 for appropriate action. Such information should also be passed to those field representatives of other departments and agencies who have a need for it. Reports based on information passed laterally in the field should include the identity of the collecting department or agency, unless further confirmed by the forwarding department or agency. However, the original collector may also transmit this information to his own headquarters indicating what lateral dissemination he has made in the field.

d. Make available to the Senior U.S. Representative and, unless otherwise directed by him, to the field representatives of other departments or agencies pertinent directives and instructions for overt collection received from their departments or agencies, as well as their reports.

4. Nothing in this directive shall be interpreted as authorizing any officer to delay, suppress, or make substantive changes in any intelligence report without the concurrence of the officer submitting the report. Any dissenting opinion or commentary should be incorporated in or accompany the report, or it may be submitted separately to avoid delay in the transmission of the original report.

ALLEN W. DULLES

Director of Central Intelligence

~~SECRET~~